

Daily Meditations

MONDAY

“Forgive them for they know not what they do.” The essence of forgiveness is brotherly love. Invite the Christ Consciousness of forgiveness into you awareness. Let “It” fill you with “Its” presence and transform the angry heart with “Its” peace, the peace that passes all understanding.

TUESDAY

Let brotherly love continue. There is only one Father of us all. Today is the day to forgive ourselves for reacting to negative and harmful people or situations – for believing there is something to forgive “out there.” Forgiveness is the “letting” of Love in the acknowledgement that there is only one Creation, one Power, one Being, and one Activity.

WEDNESDAY

Let’s open ourselves to the Kingdom of God within where there is nothing to forgive. Let’s open ourselves to the natural spring of love within. From that divine place of Love, the imprisoned splendor of that Christ Consciousness flows through us and covers the world in an atmosphere of splendor and beauty.

THURSDAY

Forgiveness is an experience deep within our consciousness. When we know the world as a spiritual creation, made in the image and likeness of Love, we see Divine perfection. Conscious union with the Divine One within dissolves all discord, sin and suffering, then we see men, women and children as God’s manifestation, untouched by limited concepts.

FRIDAY

Heaven on Earth! Is it possible? “The former things have passed away, and all things are become new.” We live in a state of continual forgiveness that lifts us out of the old beliefs and ties of human existence. The activity of the Christ Consciousness within opens our understanding so we can look upon the world without judgment and witness the power and glory of God.

SATURDAY

Forgiveness and freedom are soul mates that live in eternal truth. Truth reveals spirit as underlying all effect. Forgiveness reveals the truth behind the appearance. Forgiveness reveals purity behind the eyes of every individual. Recognize this truth and be free.

SUNDAY

“Rejoice! For your names are written in Heaven.” Behold no evil in, on, or through man, for man is made in the image and likeness of God, good. Pierce the veil of illusion by forgiving our own misperceived vision of humanity, and stand free in the clarity of knowing only children of God.
