

Daily Meditations

Monday

Rejoice! For your name is written in heaven. Let the I within brighten and enliven your experience as you drop the concept of separation, the idea of God and man, and know that there is only one. The Kingdom of heaven is within you. Let it out!

Tuesday

Oh holy night! The earth and the heavens, our spiritual consciousness manifested, show forth the glory of God in infinite form and variety. This grace, which God has shown forth, is ever fully and perfectly here and now – and only needs our recognition to become our happiness forever more.

Wednesday

In Thy presence is fullness of life. Christ, the spirit of God in man has been recognized in the world. We bring our gifts to this holy one, gifts of honor and acknowledgment that we may experience the presence of God. Every gift we give honors the Christ, and our recognition of the Christ in everyone we meet brings peace and joy to the world.

Thursday

Celebrate the Christ – Emanuel, Mighty Counselor, Prince of Peace – the One whose shoulders the Government is upon. Come to know him, for He is within you, and within all you meet. Greet the world in love.

Friday

Hallelujah! You are the cup of joy. Give to the world. Don't hold back. Let My Joy, My Peace, and My Love flow from you, so that you may experience the fulfillment of the Christ.

Saturday

Rejoice! Be of good cheer. The great secret of life has been revealed. Your consciousness is now enlightened. Recognize the indwelling Christ and be free.

Sunday

Unconditioned love came into the world as the Christ. Perfect peace came into the world as the Christ. Grace and Truth are activities of the Christ. To know Him is life everlasting. To know Him is freedom. He is not in holy mountains or holy temples; he is within you. He is in the stillness of a pure heart and a quiet mind. Take yourself to this place and realize the He within you is greater than any concept of mankind you might have. Then watch the world of error dissolve.
